

Pendulous-disc
Polypore

Porodisculus pendulus
(Schweinitz ex Fries) Murrill

OVERALL: Pigtail, May 25, 2012, J. Solem.
OVERALL: Schooley Mill Park, 3/26/2016, J. Solem.
PORES: Schooley Mill Park, 3/26/2016, J. Solem.
TOPS: Pigtail, March 25, 2012, G. McClure.
PORES: Pigtail, March 25, 2012, G. McClure.

Pendulous-disc Polypore

Porodisculus pendulus
Polyporaceae

J	F	M	A	M	J	J	A	S	O	N	D
---	---	+	+	+	---	---	---	---	---	---	---

ID: Cap white/brown; pendant; persists. Very small.

Habitat: Groups. Bark of dead hardwoods (oak, hickory, walnut).

Cap: 1/32 – 1/4" [1 – 5 mm]

White/brown; leathery/rigid; pendant, semicircular. Persists in age.

Stalk: 1/8 – 1/4" x [3 – 5 mm]

Whitish; powdery; mealy. Attached at top, extends into cap.

Pores: Whitish/brownish. Circular (6+/mm). Tubes (0.2 – 0.5 mm)

Spores: White.

Frequency: Uncommon.

Locations: PIGTL, ROBNC, SLMLP.

Note: Mycobank 431969. Nominal growing season is August – October, but specimens were photographed in spring .

References: Bin 409. Lin 484, 489.