

Sympetrum semicinctum* (Say)

Band-winged Meadowhawk

15 Jun - 30 Oct

Common

24-31 mm (1.0-1.2 in.)

Small

MALE: Eyes: chestnut-brown. Face: light. Thorax: reddish-brown. Abdomen: dorsally red, black below; S2-6 may have lateral black arrow-shaped marks and S8-9 lateral black marks. Legs: black. Wings: basal 1/2 banded w/ orange or brown heavier on HWs, paler and reduced on FWs. Appendages: cerci red, paraprocts black.

FEMALE: More brownish than reddish. Abdomen: wide black band on lower half of side; S7-9 small middorsal black triangles.

JUVENILE: Abdomen: golden-brown.

Habitat: Running water; marshes. Perches low in tall grasses. Forages in morning from tips of plants in marshy areas.

Reproduction: Mating perched in tall grasses. Female oviposits in tandem into water.

Notes: Old name: Band-winged Meadowfly. Population fluctuates greatly year-to-year.

Locations: Coca Cola Drive, David Force, Font Hill, Frederick Road, Gateway - AE/DR/RF/SM, Mayfield Wods - GG, Meadowbrook, Savage Park, Schooley Mill, Stevens - W, UMD CF - S, Wesley Lane.

MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
			==	==	==	==	==		