

Stylogomphus albistylus* (Hagen in Selys)

Eastern Least Clubtail

25 May – 1 Aug

Uncommon

31-36 mm (1.2-1.4 in.)

Small

MALE: Eyes: gray-green. Face: yellow w/ black cross stripes. Thorax: yellowish-green w/ 2 yellow streaks or lateral stripes (2 fused into one); sides pale yellowish-green. Abdomen: slender/slightly clubbed; S4-7 black w/ yellow dorsal basal spots or rings. Appendages: whitish w/ distinctive shape.

FEMALE: Paler, spots more extensive.

Habitat: Large sunny areas of rapid rivers and streams; shallow riffles w/ rocks in sun; often forage from tree leaves.

Reproduction: Male makes frequent low fast patrols. Exuviae on side of rocks in stream, tree roots 1' up.

Notes: Was Lanthus albistylus.

Locations: David Force, Gaither Road, Henryton, Hipsely Mill - R, Howard Chapel, Kindler - D, Long Corner - PR, Marriottsville, Murray Hill, Old Frederick, PRSP, Vantage Point - LPR, Vollmerhausen - U, Wincopin, Woodstock.

MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
		==	===-	-	-				