

Lestes inequalis* Walsh

Elegant Spreadwing

9 Jul [ one record]

Very Rare

MALE: 45-58.5 mm (1.8-2.3 in.) FEMALE: 45.4-58 (1.8-2.3)

Large

MALE: Eyes: blue above, greenish-yellow below. Thorax/abdomen: black/metallic green above, light yellow below. Abdomen: S8-9 pruinosity. Legs: black/yellow. Appendages; black, paraprocts longer than cerci.

FEMALE: Like male except brown may replace metallic green. Eyes: brown above. Thorax: humeral stripes greenish-gray. Abdomen: S9 brown/swollen; S10 pale. Wings: sometimes slightly flavescent.

JUVENILE: Thorax: Male wide metallic green stripes on front which fuse at maturity; female median/shoulder bands orange-brown.

Habitat: Permanent ponds/lakes w/ abundance of emergent vegetation, slow streams. Perches in shade during day, becomes active near sundown; flies over open water.

Reproduction: Female oviposits in tandem in top surface of lily pads or in green stems above water level.

Locations: Kindler - P.

MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
				—					